> WHO AM I

Systems builder and creative web coder. That is how I define myself, but in essence what I have worked on most is front-end development. 7 years of experience, coming from a graphic design background. I build efficient, clean and maintainable systems: reusable components with Vue (also React, though I feel less affinity with it), with a devotion to pixel-perfect UI and careful, efficient DOM management. Strong in HTML, CSS, Sass and vanilla JavaScript. Comfortable in GNU/Linux and the terminal, with hands-on experience in self-hosting, networking and system administration context.
